A NEW COVENANT IN MY BLOOD

When Jesus was in the upper room, he says, "This is the new covenant in my blood." The prophet Jeremiah mentioned this new covenant in Jeremiah 31:31-32. While facing the inevitable deportation to Babylon and the destruction of Jerusalem, Jeremiah not only gave the Israelites a vision of the day when they shall return and rebuild the city, he also said that God would make a new covenant with them. This new covenant will be different from the covenant with Moses, which they had broken

In Jeremiah 31:33-34, it says

<sup>33</sup> For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. <sup>34</sup> And no longer shall each one teach his neighbour and each his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the Lord. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

The commandments in the old covenant with Moses were written outside of people's hearts because they were written on stone. But in the new covenant, God will write His law on their hearts, and they will all know God. Everyone will know God because this new covenant is a one-on-one connection; it is a new relationship where God knows every one of us individually.

Welcome!

During this unusual time when we cannot all come together for worship, we can still be part of a worshipping community. We invite you to join us at our live worship service by pre-registration at the church's website <https://www.cplink.org.sg/>. You may join our live-streaming services online via our website. We hope you can also connect with our Life Groups. Please contact one of our

Pastoral Staff if you like to join a Life Group. We are still meeting and connecting through various digital platforms.

We want to grow in Christlikeness through devotion and delight in God, nurturing devotion and delight in God, nurturing relationships and intentionally multiplying disciplemakers.

Not only that, remember Jesus said, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood poured out for you, for the forgiveness of all your sins.” The new relationship from this new covenant will be based on forgiveness.

God says in Jeremiah 31:34, “For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.” This is the most amazing statement God could say because many of us cannot forgive and forget our own sins. Perhaps that is why we find it so hard to forgive others. But when God forgives, he forgets. God has the power to erase our sins from his memory bank.

The next time when you take the communion, and you hear the minister repeating what Jesus said, “Take and drink, this cup is the new covenant in my blood, poured out for the forgiveness of all your sins.” Remember, God now writes his laws on our hearts to enable every single man and woman to know him well. And remember, you are a new person, a new creation. Your old self has died and buried with Christ; don’t dig it out again. Ask God to empower you to forgive and forget your sins and the sins of others.
